

Full Time Managing Licensed Optician Prince George, British Columbia

Looking for an awesome eye care professional career growth opportunity? Do you want to be in a position where you can truly make a difference in the lives of your clients? You don't want to miss this one. YET Human Resources is assisting our client in their search for the best candidate.

The Organization

We are the largest provider of eyewear in Canada and have a strong reputation. A well-established employer and organization in Eastern Canada, we continue to grow and are expanding into the West. It's an exciting time! New locations are opening, and existing ones are being refreshed, renovated and rebranded. With over 400 stores coast to coast, you will be working with an organization that is here to stay. We offer various optical product lines throughout North America and there is always something for everyone and their budget. We value experienced employees who can represent the brand in a professional manner. As a progressive company, we continue to introduce new tools and new products.

The Location

Prince George is an incredible community in beautiful British Columbia. If you don't already live nearby, here are some of the reasons you will want to move to Prince George: low cost of living, buying your dream home is a realistic goal, it's urban, you won't spend your free time stuck in traffic, it's the region's centre for health care, there are awesome educational institutions including a university, lots of opportunity for everyone to have fun and 1900 hours of sunshine per year. There are also resources dedicated to helping people relocate to Prince George.

The Opportunity

As the Managing Licensed Optician running your own store, you will be the pillar of what we are building. There will be lots of opportunity for your own professional growth as well as developing your team. You will have full autonomy to oversee the store while reporting into the Director of Operations in Western Canada. You will work in partnership with your leader to manage your store as if it were your very own. You will build the workplace culture and be part of its success. Your team will be a mix of opticians and optometrists who work together. Your strong leadership skills will help you mentor and coach your employees. You will help us identify opportunities and find solutions to make this the best place to work.

Education and Experience

- Licensed Optician in province of residence
- Optical sales experience preferred
- Excellent customer service, technical and computer skills
- Leadership experience (can be outside of eyecare)
